

GOD'S CALLING: LISTEN WITH YOUR HEART

Is God calling you to ordained ministry: Pastor? Chaplain? Professor? Music Ministry? Youth Ministry? Lay ministry: Certification? Missionary Service?

Come to the God's Calling: Listen With Your Heart event, January 6-8, 2012, at St. Paul's UMC, State College. This event is sponsored by the Susquehanna Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, Enlistment and Interpretation Committee.

The purpose of this event is to help you discern your call to ministry. During this event, our goal is to assist you in better understanding God's call, and to create a better awareness of the ordained and lay certified ministries.

There will be guest speakers, educational workshops, inspirational worship, food, fun, and fellowship.

Leaders of youth and young adults will receive information on how to help young persons hear and respond to God's call.

GOD'S CALLING: LISTEN WITH YOUR HEART

JANUARY 6-8, 2012

ST. PAUL'S UMC, STATE COLLEGE

God is calling you! Some will respond to their baptismal call by entering ordained ministry, others will minister as committed lay persons in their local churches and as Christians in the workplace and community.

Eleventh and twelfth grade youth and college-age students who are experiencing or discerning the call to ministry are encouraged to attend this event.

Leaders of youth and young adults who are guiding persons through the process are also welcome to attend. We encourage pastors and leaders of youth and young adults to identify persons who may benefit from this event.

This event is intended for individuals, and not for entire youth groups.
